PURPOSE OF LEGISLATION

The purpose of H.R. 7211 is to amend the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act and review a final rule of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The Rural Disaster Assistance Fairness Act of 2005 (42 U.S.C. 5165d) created the Small State and Rural Advocate position to work on behalf of states with small populations. H.R. 7211 amends the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (Stafford Act, P.L. 93–288, as amended) to expand and codify the responsibilities of FEMA's Small State and Rural Advocate (SSRA) when helping state and local officials demonstrate localized impact and apply for federal disaster aid. The new responsibilities direct the SSRA to assist states with the collection and presentation of material in their disaster or emergency declaration requests. The bill also directs the Government Accountability Office (GAO) to conduct a review of the factors FEMA considers when evaluating a governor's request for individual assistance in the aftermath of a disaster.

HEARINGS

For the purposes of rule XIII, clause 3(c)(6)(A) of the 117th Congress, the following hearings were used to develop or consider H.R. 7211:

This hearing allowed Members to receive testimony from witnesses who are emergency management experts and represent key external Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) stakeholders to gauge their perspective regarding what efforts the agency should prioritize in this year.

On October 26, 2021, the Subcommittee on Economic Development, Public Buildings, and Emergency Management held a hearing titled “Are FEMA’s Assistance Programs Adequately Designed to Assist Communities Before, During, and After Wildfire?” The Subcommittee received testimony from Mr. Andrew Phelps, Director, Office of Emergency Management, State of Oregon, on behalf of the National Emergency Management Association; Mr. Rich Elliott, Deputy Chief, Kittitas Valley Fire and Rescue, State of Washington, on behalf of the International Association of Fire Chiefs; Ms. Kacey KC, State Forester and Firewarden, Division of Forestry, State of Nevada; and Mr. Casey Hatcher, Deputy Chief Administrative Officer, Butte County, California. Section 423 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 requires the report of any Committee on a bill or joint resolution to include a statement on the extent to which the bill or joint resolution is intended to preempt state, local, or tribal law.
